EuCIA Newsletter NOVEMBER/DECEMBER2024.

Read more

News.

EuCIA highlights role of composites in the net-zero transition.

EuCIA's new publication The importance of composites for the net-zero transition explains why composites are key to decarbonising industry and advancing sustainable technologies. This publication is part of a new series of EuCIA articles designed to demonstrate the sustainability and circularity of composites materials.

Read more

AVK seminar showcases German composites recycling concepts.

EuCIA joined leaders of the German composites industry at a meeting of the Sustainability Working Group of AVK. The seminar showcased progress in composites sustainability and

Read more

EuCIA and NCMT organise webinar on composite bridge.

EuCIA and Norwegian Circular Materials Technology (NCMT) organised the webinar Composite Bridges: The Road to Become a Proven Solution for European Infrastructure. The presentations explained how composite materials provide a sustainable and efficient solution for European infrastructure.

Read more

Meet our members.

Polyvia.

Polyvia represents the plastics and composites industries in France. Didier Muller explains the association's mission to shape the future of the composites industry through sustainability and innovation.

Read more

Composites UK.

Composites UK is the voice of the UK composites industry. Its key aim is to support companies to enable them to grow and succeed globally. Sue Halliwell and Malcolm Forsyth discuss the association's strategy.

Read more

Turkish Composite Manufacturers Association (TCMA).

TCMA aims to promote the use of composites in both existing and emerging markets, while ensuring that Turkish manufacturers remain competitive on the global stage. Kerem Paksoy outlines the organisation's activities.

Read more

EuCIA in action.

RECOMP 2024.

EuCIA participated in RECOMP 2024, Composites UK's conference exploring reuse and recycling of composites. Jaap van der Woude, chair of EuCIA's Sustainability Working Group, delivered the keynote presentation Taking Composites Circularity to the Next Level – Challenges and Opportunities. materials.

Read more

European Composites Circularity Solutions update.

EuCIA is inviting organisations offering composites recycling services to join its European Composites Circularity Solutions listing. The next edition will be published in January.

Read more

Videos.

LCA on cement co-processing of EoL composites.

EuCIA hosted a webinar highlighting cement co-processing as a sustainable solution for managing end-of-life (EoL) composites.

Read more

Composite materials in the circular economy

EuCIA's president Professor Roberto Frassine spoke about composites circularity during the Meet4Composite trade show in Istanbul.

Read more

European projects.

EOLIAN website launched.

EUCIA leads the communication and dissemination activities for the EOLIAN project, which is aiming to develop recyclable wind turbine blades made from vitrimer composites. The project's website was launched in November, together with the publication of the first press release.

Read more

REFRESH at EoLIS 2024.

The REFRESH project participated in WindEurope's End-of-Life Issues and Strategies (EoLIS) seminar in Gothenburg. REFRESH joined related European projects in the conference session Advances in Wind Turbine Blade Recycling Technologies.

Read more

Upcoming events.

Read more

Read more

Read more

Read more